

CONTRACT FACULTY GOVERNANCE POLICY

The Department of Burriss Laboratory School recognizes that contract faculty members make extremely important contributions to students, faculty stability, service, and the delivery of departmental programs.

Therefore, any full-time faculty member shall be enfranchised to:

1. vote on all departmental matters, except those pertaining to promotion and tenure,
2. serve in leadership roles in departmental operations, and
3. serve on Department, Teachers College, and University counsels and committees (excluding membership on Department, College, and University Promotion and Tenure Committees.)
