For reverification or rehire, complete Supplement B, Reverification and Rehire on Page 4.
Employee's Withholding Certificate

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. Give Form W-4 to your employer.

Your withholding is subject to review by the IRS.

Step 1: Enter Personal Information

- (a) First name and middle initial
- (b) Social security number

- Address
- City or town, state, and ZIP code

- (c) □ Single or Married filing separately
- □ Married filing jointly or Qualifying surviving spouse
- □ Head of household (Check only if you're unmarried and pay more than half the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and a qualifying individual.)

Step 2: Multiple Jobs or Spouse Works

Complete this step if you (1) hold more than one job at a time, or (2) are married filing jointly and your spouse also works. The correct amount of withholding depends on income earned from all of these jobs.

Do only one of the following.

- (a) Reserved for future use.
- (b) Use the Multiple Jobs Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result in Step 4(c) below; or
- (c) If there are only two jobs total, you may check this box. Do the same on Form W-4 for the other job. This option is generally more accurate than (b) if pay at the lower paying job is more than half of the pay at the higher paying job. Otherwise, (b) is more accurate.

TIP: If you have self-employment income, see page 2.

Step 3: Claim Dependent and Other Credits

If your total income will be $200,000 or less ($400,000 or less if married filing jointly):

1. Multiply the number of qualifying children under age 17 by $2,000
2. Multiply the number of other dependents by $500
3. Add the amounts above for qualifying children and other dependents. You may add to this the amount of any other credits. Enter the total here

Step 4: Other Adjustments (optional)

- (a) Other income (not from jobs). If you want tax withheld for other income you expect this year that won’t have withholding, enter the amount of other income here. This may include interest, dividends, and retirement income

- (b) Deductions. If you expect to claim deductions other than the standard deduction and want to reduce your withholding, use the Deductions Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result here

- (c) Extra withholding. Enter any additional tax you want withheld each pay period

Step 5: Sign Here

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that this certificate, to the best of my knowledge and belief, is true, correct, and complete.

- Employee's signature (This form is not valid unless you sign it.)
- Date

Employers Only

- Employer’s name and address
- First date of employment
- Employer identification number (EIN)

For Privacy Act and Paperwork Reduction Act Notice, see page 3.

Instructions for Completing Form WH-4

This form should be completed by all resident and nonresident employees having income subject to Indiana state and/or county income tax.

Print or type your full name, Social Security number or ITIN and home address. Enter your Indiana county of residence and county of principal employment as of January 1 of the current year. If you did not live or work in Indiana on January 1 of the current year, enter “not applicable” on the line(s). If you move to (or work in) another county after January 1, your county status will not change until the next calendar tax year.

Nonresident alien limitation. A nonresident alien is allowed to claim only one exemption for withholding tax purposes. If you are a nonresident alien, enter “1” on line 1, then skip to line 7. You are considered to be a nonresident alien if you are not a citizen of the United States and do not meet the green card test and the substantial presence test (get Publication 519 from www.irs.gov for information about these tests).

All other employees should complete lines 1 through 7.

Lines 1 & 2 - You are allowed to claim one exemption for yourself and one for your spouse (if he/she does not claim the exemption for him/herself). If a parent or legal guardian claims you on their federal tax return, you may still claim an exemption for yourself for Indiana purposes. You cannot claim more than the correct number of exemptions; however, you are permitted to claim a lesser number of exemptions if you wish additional withholding to be deducted.

Line 3 - Dependent Exemptions: You are allowed one exemption for each of your dependents based on state and federal guidelines. To qualify as your dependent, a person must receive more than one-half of his/her support from you for the tax year and must have less than $1,000 gross income during the tax year (unless the person is your child and is under age 19 or under age 24 and a full-time student at least during 5 months of the tax year at a qualified educational institution).

Line 4 - Additional Exemptions. You are also allowed one exemption each for you and/or your spouse if either is 65 or older and/or blind.

Line 5 - Add the total of exemptions claimed on lines 1, 2, 3, and 4. Enter the total in the box provided.

Line 6 - Additional Dependent Exemptions. An additional exemption is allowed for certain dependent children that are included on line 3. The dependent child must be a son, stepson, daughter, stepdaughter and/or foster child.

Lines 7 & 8 - If you would like an additional amount to be withheld from your wages each pay period, enter the amount on the line provided. NOTE: An entry on this line does not obligate your employer to withhold the amount. You are still liable for any additional taxes due at the end of the tax year. If the employer does withhold the additional amount, it should be submitted along with the regular state and county tax withholding.

You may file a new Form WH-4 at any time if the number of exemptions increases. You must file a new Form WH-4 within 10 days if the number of exemptions previously claimed by you decreases for any of the following reasons:

(a) you divorce (or are legally separated from) your spouse for whom you have been claiming an exemption or your spouse claims him/herself on a separate Form WH-4;
(b) someone else takes over the support of a dependent you claim or you no longer provide more than one-half of the person’s support for the tax year; or
(c) the person who you claim as an exemption will receive more than $1,000 of income during the tax year.

Penalties are imposed for willingly supplying false information or information which would reduce the withholding exemption.

WHAT IS A 403(b) and 457(b) PLAN?
403(b) and 457(b) plans are tax-deferred retirement plans for employees of certain tax-exempt, governmental organizations or public education institutions. An employer may sponsor 403(b) and 457(b) plans to provide a benefit to its employees to save for retirement on a tax-deferred basis. Contributing to a 403(b) or 457(b) plan may help to give you peace of mind through financial security during your retirement. Participation in the 403(b) or 457(b) plan sponsored by the University is completely voluntary. You may contribute a portion of your pay to the 403(b) and 457(b) plans as a pre-tax contribution or an after-tax (Roth) contribution in order to save toward your retirement. If you are already contributing to the 403(b) or a 457(b) plan, now may be the perfect time to think about increasing your contributions.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE TO CONTRIBUTE TO A 403(b) and 457(b) PLAN?
All University employees and student employees are eligible to participate in the University’s 403(b) and 457(b) plans.

WHAT ARE THE BENEFITS OF CONTRIBUTING TO A 403(b) and 457(b) PLANS?

LOWER YOUR TAXES
You may make pre-tax contributions to the 403(b) plan and 457(b). This means that you are taxed on a lower amount of income. For example, if your federal marginal income tax rate is 25%, and if you contribute $100 a month to the 403(b) and/or 457(b) plan, you have reduced your federal income taxes by nearly $25. In effect, your $100 contribution costs you only $75. You will realize similar tax savings based on your state income tax rate. The tax savings can grow with the size of your contributions to the plans.

TAX-DEFERRED GROWTH
Interest and earnings on your contributions to the 403(b) and 457(b) plans grow tax-free until you withdraw them from the plan. The compounding interest on your contributions to the 403(b) and 457(b) plans can allow your account to grow more quickly than saving money in a savings account where interest and earnings are generally taxed each year.

TAKING THE INITIATIVE
Contributing to the 403(b) and 457(b) plans can help you take control of your future retirement needs. Other sources of retirement income, including state pension plans and, if applicable, Social Security, often do not adequately replace a person’s salary upon retirement. The 403(b) and 457(b) plans can be a great way to provide you with additional income at retirement.

ROTH OPTION
You may also choose to contribute a portion of your pay to the 403(b) and/or 457(b) plan on an after-tax (Roth) basis. If you wait at least five years before taking a distribution of your after-tax (Roth) account and meet certain other requirements, you can request a distribution of your entire account tax-free.

HOW MUCH CAN YOU CONTRIBUTE TO A 403(b) & 457(b) PLANS?
You may elect to contribute up to $22,500 of your pay to the 403(b) and also the 457(b) plan in 2023. If you are age 50 or older, or will attain age 50 by the end of the calendar year, you may also elect to contribute up to an additional $7,500 of your pay to the 403(b) and/or 457(b) plans in 2023.

HOW TO ENROLL IN THE PLANS
If you already have a Fidelity account: Login to Fidelity in order to choose contribution percentage, investment options, and beneficiary elections.
If you do not have a Fidelity account: A login may be created and an account may be opened at Fidelity (TDA plan # 89928 or 457(b) plan # 71146) then you may choose a contribution percentage, investment options, and beneficiary elections.

New elections and changes to existing contribution rates may be made at any time by logging into your Fidelity account. Changes in contribution rates generally take one to two paychecks to take effect.

INVESTMENT CHOICES
You can view a comprehensive listing of the investment options offered under the plans by logging into your Fidelity account.

DISTRIBUTIONS FROM THE PLAN
You or your beneficiary can take a distribution from the 403(b) and 457(b) plans at the earlier of:
1. Retirement
2. Total disability
3. Death of participant
4. Termination of employment
5. Attainment of age 59 ½

LOANS (403(b) Plan only)
Loans are limited to one at a time from all investment providers combined. You may borrow up to ½ of your balance up to a maximum of $50,000. Contact your investment provider for more information.

GENERAL PLAN INFORMATION
To obtain additional information about the 403(b) and 457(b) plans, please contact the Employee Benefits Office at (765) 285-1834 or peb@bsu.edu.

Updated 12/1/2022
1. INTRODUCTION

This Confidentially and Information Access Employee Agreement must be read, understood, and signed by all employees who either access or may encounter Ball State University confidential information as a part of their assigned duties. Questions which arise during the course of employment may be directed to your immediate supervisor, Career Center, or the Office of Information Security Services. Employees signing this agreement should keep a copy for their records.

2. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION DEFINED

Ball State University is dedicated to safeguarding and maintaining the confidentiality, integrity, and availability of our student, employee, and organizational information. “Confidential Information” includes all of this information that is personally identifiable and non-public. I understand Confidential Information may be paper-based, electronic, or stored or transmitted in some other form, and that examples of Confidential Information include, but are not limited to:

- Academic information, such as grades and class schedules
- Bank and credit card account information, income, credit history, and consumer report information
- Disciplinary or employment records or related information
- Loan information, including loan applications and loan servicing, collection and processing
- Money wiring and other electronic funds transfers
- Other non-public personally identifiable information relating to a financial transaction
- Social Security Numbers, driver's license numbers, or similar identification codes or numbers
- Student account balance information, financial aid information

I understand the existence of information in one publicly available format does not imply approval to disclose it in another format. For example, I understand certain student directory information (such as telephone numbers and mailing addresses) may appear in the printed Ball State University Directory, however disclosure of the same information in another format such as an electronic file requires separate approval from the appropriate Data Steward. I will contact my supervisor or the Office of Institutional Effectiveness for help in determining the appropriate Data Steward for particular university data when dealing with Confidential Information if I am unsure how to proceed.

3. PROTECTION OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

Protection of Confidential Information requires the following minimum standards, which I agree as a condition of my continued employment:

- Download or Transmission of Confidential Information: I will not download or extract Confidential Information to removable storage devices such as compact discs or flash drives, or transmit such information to any non-university system including personally owned systems or entity without explicit approval to do so from my supervisor or the appropriate Data Steward and the Office of Information Security Services.
- Access to Confidential Information: I will safeguard and maintain the confidentiality of all Confidential Information at all times and will only access, use, or disclose Confidential Information necessary to perform my assigned duties. I will disclose such information to other individuals or organizations only for legitimate University business, research, or academic purposes, and only after I have received prior approval to do so from my supervisor or the appropriate Data Steward.
- Desktop and Laptop Computer Security: I will maintain the security of any computer or device I use to access or store Confidential Information to the best of my ability including the use of passwords, protected "screen savers", approved antivirus and anti-spyware software, and other measures as may be required by Information Technology Security procedures available at http://www.bsu.edu/security. If I am uncertain as to how to secure my computers or devices I will obtain the necessary help to ensure they are protected.

d. Servers and Vendors: I understand implementing servers on or off-campus requires compliance with a separate set of procedures available at http://www.bsu.edu/security. I will not implement servers or hosted systems before contacting the Office of Information Security Services to ensure alignment with applicable hosting procedures.

e. Duty to Protect Passwords: I understand passwords used to access university systems are Confidential Information and that I am responsible for access assigned to me. I will not disclose my university passwords for any reason absent the approval of the Office of Information Security Services. In the event I suspect my password has been lost or stolen I will immediately notify the IT Helpdesk (765-285-1517) or Computer Operations (765-285-1549) so that my password may be disabled or reset.

f. Duty of Renounce Access: In the event my duties and responsibilities or job assignment changes or my employment with the university ceases I affirm that I will maintain the confidentiality, integrity and availability of all Confidential Information and will promptly notify the appropriate systems administrator or other authority so that my access may be properly adjusted or removed.

g. Reporting An Information Security Breach Or Policy Violation: In the event I suspect a security breach or inappropriate disclosure of Confidential Information my first action will be to immediately notify either the Office of Information Security Services (765-285-4390), the Office of University Compliance (765-285-5162), or IT Computer Operations after-hours support (765-285-1419). I will then review the official procedures for Reporting an Information Security Incident or Suspected Violation and will take any additional subsequent steps required.

h. Appropriate Use of Technology: I understand the Information Technology Users’ Privileges and Responsibilities policy governs my usage and I agree to abide by the terms of this policy regarding the appropriate use of all technology and information systems at Ball State University.

i. Security Monitoring and Testing Software or Hardware: I will not use software, tools, or techniques (human, technical, or otherwise) designed or intended to break, exploit, or test the security of university technology resources without explicit written approval from the Office of Information Security Services.

j. Audit & Security Review of BSU Information Systems: I understand I have no personal expectation of privacy in any computer or storage system owned, maintained, or utilized by Ball State University. I further understand the university audits, logs, reviews, and utilizes information stored on or passing through information systems for legal or administrative purposes, and that the university may not provide notification of such access or usage.

k. Sanctions: I understand violations of this Agreement may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment, suspension and loss of privileges, termination of authorization to Confidential Information, as well as legal sanctions.

PLEASE REFER ANY QUESTIONS RELATED TO THIS AGREEMENT TO YOUR SUPERVISOR OR THE CAREER CENTER.

By signing this Agreement, I acknowledge that I have read and fully understand and agree to comply with all of its terms and conditions. I also understand my current access may be revoked and I may be denied future access to university information unless I sign, date and return this Agreement in a timely manner.
