Miller College of Business' Distinctions

- Miller College faculty are integrating artificial intelligence across the curriculum, giving students hands-on experience with emerging technologies in finance, accounting, marketing, supply chain management, and business analytics. This prepares graduates for Indiana's evolving, tech-driven economy.
- Students gain global perspectives and real-world skills through study-away and study-abroad experiences—at locations such as Wall Street in New York City, Chicago's Garment District, and upcoming programs in Belize, Croatia, Vietnam, and Mexico—made possible through donor support.
- Ball State is one of only a few universities worldwide to be designated a Global Center of Insurance Excellence by the International Insurance Society since 2017.
- The Master of Business Administration (MBA) program is ranked 16th in U.S. News & World Report's 2025 “Best Online Programs” list.
- All but a few Miller College of Business programs are accredited by the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB International)—a distinction earned by less than 6 percent of the world's business schools—reflecting our adherence to rigorous standards of excellence.
- The Sales Education Foundation has recognized Miller College of Business' sales program as one of the “Top Sales Programs” for 2024–25. Our program has held this designation for the last 19 years.
- Ball State's bachelor's degree in property management is one of only 12 such programs in the country.
- The logistics and supply chain management program requires an internship—equipping students with real-world experience and directly enhancing their career prospects. By integrating hands-on learning, the program ensures a higher career placement rate for graduates and gives them a competitive edge in the job market.
