

BALL STATE UNIVERSITY INTERFRATERNITY COUNCIL POSITION STATEMENT

DRIVING UNDER THE INFLUENCE

WHEREAS, The current risk management policy does not provide a stance against public displays of inappropriate behavior.

WHEREAS, Not only is driving under the influence illegal, it is also dangerous and life threatening to those involved and the general public.

WHEREAS, Greek members should hold themselves accountable and to higher standards of conduct and take steps to keep members and the general public safe.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, That the Ball State University Interfraternity Council delegation strongly discourages any IFC fraternity man from driving under the influence and encourages individual fraternities to hold its members accountable if those members drive under the influence.
