1/9/2018	Office of Greek Life	Alcohol Skill Training Program	The Alcohol Skills Training Program (ASTP) is unlike most alcohol programs, because it acknowledges that college students drink. Rather than try to impose abstinence, ASTP recognizes that any steps toward reduced risk are steps in the right direction. The goal of ASTP is to educate on alcohol-related behavior while increasing members' interest in critically examining their drinking patterns and eventually implementing the skills they learn. In doing so, members can minimize the potential negative consequences through prevention, reduced consumption or abstinence.	Kari Murphy	104
