BIG NEWS!
The 58th Cast of the Ball State University Singers has been invited to perform at Carnegie Hall! Former director and Ball State alumnus Dr. Michael Davis will be conducting Vaughan Williams’ Dona Nobis Pacem, and has asked the University Singers to join him and the Indianapolis Symphonic Choir in New York for this history-making event. If you would like to support the University Singers in this endeavor, please see donation information on the back!

FROM THE PRODUCER...
Our annual Winter Cabaret is special to every cast because it is out time to reflect on our beginnings, and pay homage to those amazing people who came before us. January 29th is Ball State University Singers Day, and we’re so happy that you joined us tonight to celebrate us! We hope you were entertained and that we were able to bring you some joy and laughter tonight. It is our privilege to share in this experience with you, as we do what we’ve always done for nearly 60 years... entertain an amazing audience such as you! Thank you for being here tonight, and we hope to see you at many future performances!
