

DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL WORK
SCHOLARSHIP AND FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE AWARD PROGRAMS

I. W.K. AND L.M. REHFELD
SCHOLARSHIP AND FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE FUND (Available to BSW and MSW students)

Ball State University Foundation
Account # 8051

- A. Donors: In 1966, W. Karl Rehfeld and his wife, Lea, moved to Muncie to begin a social work program at Ball State University. In the ten years that followed, the program emerged from a few courses to a full department with a curriculum accredited by the Council on Social Work Education in 1974. In keeping with their dedication to helping students in the social work major at Ball State University, the Rehfeld family provided a financial gift to the Ball State Foundation in 1981. The purpose of this financial gift was to provide financial assistance for BSW social work majors or MSW graduate students. It is with gratitude that the Department provides this resource to our students.
- B. Criteria For Awards:
1. Scholarship
 2. Financial need
 3. Service to the profession of Social Work
 4. Minimum grade point average of 2.5 for financial assistance for BSW students only
 5. Minimum grade point average of 3.0 for scholarship for BSW and MSW students
 6. Students must be enrolled as full-time social work majors or graduate students during the semester in which the award funds are applied.
 7. Award may be renewed if eligibility remains
- C. Selection: Award recipients will be chosen on the recommendation of the Scholarship Committee of the Department of Social Work.
- D. Publicity: Publicity concerning award recipients is the responsibility of the Department of Social Work in cooperation with the Office of University Relations.
- E. Notice: Notice of recipient(s) is to be sent to the Office of University Relations.

III. HARRY J. AND DELPHA S. MACY SCHOLARSHIP (Available to BSW students)

Ball State University Foundation

Account # 8053

- A. Donors: In 2004, Dr. Harry J. Macy retired after serving as the Chairperson of the Social Work Department for 27 years. Under his leadership, Ball State University became nationally known as offering a premier accredited Baccalaureate Social Work degree.

Ms. Delpha S. Macy retired from the social work profession in 2003. She was the founder and director of the family preservation program offered by a comprehensive mental health center serving three East Central Indiana bounties.

Prior to earning their MSW degrees at Indiana University and beginning their professional social work careers in 1967, Dr. and Ms. Macy served 2 years as U.S. Peace Corps teachers in Tabora, Tanzania.

Together, Dr. and Ms. Macy provided a combined total of 75 years of social work practice, public education and professional service during their careers.

The Macy Scholarship program recognizes their life-long commitment to excellence in professional social work practice. The Macy Scholarship program was created to help the Department continue to provide high quality education to exceptionally well-qualified social work students. First awarded in 2008 and to continue in perpetuity, students receive academic, merit-based financial assistance from this scholarship program.

B. Criteria For Awards:

1. Students must be enrolled as full-time, senior-level social work majors during the semester in which the award funds are applied.
2. Have a commitment to advancing the social work profession
3. Be dedicated to promoting social and economic justice and demonstrate energy, perseverance, and courage in addressing social problems
4. Have a life-long commitment to voluntary service to others
5. Have a history of scholarship and academic excellence
6. Demonstrate vision and a potential for leadership in strengthening health and human service

- C. Selection: Award recipients will be chosen on the recommendation of the Scholarship Committee of the Department of Social Work.

- D. Publicity: Publicity concerning award recipients is the responsibility of the Department of Social Work in cooperation with the Office of University Relations.

- E. Notice: Notice of recipient(s) is to be sent to the Office of University Relations.
