

Eddie Bell (He/They), from Granger, IN, is finishing their fourth year in the BFA Acting program at Ball State University. As he continues to hone his artistry, he hopes to explore new works, heightened text, and deeply collaborative devised work. When they're not focusing on their work, Eddie likes to cook, play chess, write, and watch basketball. He believes that storytelling is essential and the most beautiful form of connection, and wants to keep sending stories into the world.
