

Emilee Dixon is a Singer, Dancer, and Actor from Lafayette, Indiana. She is a senior Ball State student currently finishing out her BFA in Musical Theatre, as well as pursuing her passions in vocal jazz at the university.

Emilee's love for jazz and soul music runs deep, inspiring her to celebrate and uplift the art, music, and styles of Black artists who have shaped these genres. She is passionate about representing the ongoing influence of jazz and BIPOC theatre, both on stage and in her personal life. Emilee is the singer for the Ball State Jazz Ensemble and is ecstatic to be touring in Chile with the band this winter.

Emilee looks forward to sharing her love for performance with new audiences as she embarks on her professional journey. Whether on stage or in collaboration with fellow musicians, she hopes to inspire joy through her music and creative endeavors.
